

Paula Watt - Bio

PAULA DELIVERS A DYNAMIC, POWERFUL AUDIENCE THRILLING PERFORMANCE.

"Paula has grace and charm that immediately lights up a stage".

Paula brings 20 years of experience as an entertainer and vocalist to the stage, working with some of Australia's leading musicians in her solo show and her various production shows.

Paula has an infectious personality and a friendliness that is felt both on and off stage. Her show includes renditions of great female entertainers who have become icons in the music industry. She will entertain you with sparkling up-tempo rhythms to sultry love songs, from swing to pop then a splash of country. Her style and choice of repertoire has multi-generational appeal.

Paula has had regular industry recognition from both the Australian "Mo" Awards and ACE Awards in categories including Best Female Vocalist, Best Production Show and Vocal Duo (with partner David Bond).

Paula has appeared in many areas of entertainment. She is a trained Irish and ballroom dancer. She has modelled for the catwalk, worked as a compere and in the recording studio as a session singer but performing live as a singer and entertainer is her greatest passion. Currently Paula has been busy performing in theatres, Corporate Events and Clubs. She is the female lead in the production shows "From Tamworth To Tennessee", "Stars & Legends" and "Back to the 60's".

"Paula's performance is not just a show but an experience".
